So Far Not a Woman Has Been Registered in This City—Registration Days, Oct. 28-29.

The man who offers to cast a vote at the coming election will be given four tickets, which will be deposited by the judges in as many different ballot boxes. Another ticket will contain the names of candidates for school board, while two other tickets will be given each voter. One of these will enable him to vote on the question of granting A. H. How Smyser Came to be "Judge"
The American Tribune talks long and loud in defense of Smyser, the candidate of a Republican faction for Congress in this district, and is so short-sighted as to drag in that Republican bolt of 1897-98 "when that masterful Republican, Marcus A. Hanna, came so nearly being defeated for the Senate." Now, it is well known that M. L. Smyser was in sympathy with that bolt, and for that reason was appointed by Governor Bushnell to the vacancy that then existed on the circuit court bench in this district. Otherwise the title of judge would never have ornamented Smyser's name.
Smyser not only enjoyed the title of judge because of his alliance with the enemies of Hanna in 1897-98, but he was still carrying out his obligation for that appointment as judge when he helped to turn down those regular Republican delegates from Licking county (WHO WERE STaunch FRIENDS OF HANNA) in behalf of the Smith Redman boaters in 1899. It is not any wonder that Marcus A. Hanna never had any use for Smyser.

Our Candidate for County Surveyor.
For the office of county surveyor, the Democratic party of Licking county, presents as a candidate Mr. Fred S.

Cully, of Hebron. A better qualified man could not be found for the position anywhere. Mr. Cully is a fine mathematician and civil engineer and makes a first-class surveyor in every respect. In his preparation for his life-work of civil engineering, Mr. Cully enjoyed the advantage of the best school and the best instructor, and since entering upon that work he has made it his life-work and not merely a side line to something more remunerative. Mr. Cully's entire time, energies and ability are given to his chosen life-work of civil engineering and surveying; his time and attention not being diverted to other pursuits. Thus, he is able to produce the best results.

Mr. Cully's Democracy is of the genuine Simon-pure brand. He is an intelligent and well-informed believer in Democratic principles and an earnest and successful advocate of these principles. A gentleman of excellent personal character and ability, a staunch Democrat and thoroughly competent and qualified for the office of surveyor, Mr. Cully will fill the bill and give entire satisfaction to the public.

As to Ancient History.
Five years ago is "ancient history," says the American Tribune in its labored effort to defend the action of Smith Redman, who led that bolting. If thirteen years is not "ancient history" when applied to an incident in the career of a young Democrat, how can five years be "ancient history" when applied to two old political stagers like Smyser and Redman? delegation in 1893, which M. L. Smyser aided to foist upon the district caucus in the conspiracy to unseat and disfranchise the regular delegates.

But thirteen years ago is not ancient history in that paper's assaults on Clement L. Riley wherein it harps about a convention of the old Peoples Party putting his name on their ticket for clerk of the court back in the year 1891.

The A.-T.'s ancient history excuse in its defense of that piece of political trickery on the part of Redman, aided by Smyser, will not go down with the numerous Licking county Republicans who have memories longer than five years.

ALL PANICS

Since the Civil War Have Been Caused by Republican Legislation.

Every panic since the Civil War has come about under and by reason of Republican legislation. The depression of 1867-70 was of a most disastrous character and came at a time when there was no "danger" of Democratic ascendancy to power. That panic was the direct result of Republican wild-cat legislation relative to finances and the tariff and came upon the heels of the passage of one of the, to that time, highest tariff bills in the history of the country. With the advent of 1873 came a blight that paralyzed industry, prostrated business, and sent the gaunt spectre of hunger and starvation into the homes of labor from one end of the country to the other. The wreck and ruin of that day were appalling in their completeness. That era of desolation lasted until 1877. Democracy was not agitating "what Republicans call" free trade then. The completeness of Republican victories was only occasionally broken—once by the election of a president, whom the Republicans by fraud, kept from taking the oath of office. That panic didn't come as the result of any threatened reduction of the tariff schedule. Like the catastrophe of 1893 it was a financial catastrophe.

It was President Benjamin Harrison, who, in one of his messages to Congress, in the latter part of his administration, declared that the secret of the depression that was then sweeping over the country was the result, not of insufficient tariff protection, but of an insufficiency of a medium of exchange. In line with this declaration he approved the passage of and affixed his signature to the famous Sherman silver coinage act. THAT WAS IN 1890—nearly three years before the inauguration of a Democratic administration.

There are hundreds in Newark who will recall the stress of the hard times that began in the middle year of the Harrison administration. It was in 1891 when the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company began a policy of retrenchment all along its lines. It was in 1891 when working hours were reduced in several of the shops at this place. It was in that year when the company began gradually to drop men from its service, both in the shops in Newark and along the road. Unrest and apprehension increased both in labor and business circles in this city and long before 1893 came capital and labor were in the midst of the storm's fury. It was in 1891 when the pottery workers at East Liverpool, in this state, went out on a strike against a substantial reduction of wages. That was within only a few months after the passage of the McKinley tariff act which have levied high duties on foreign pottery coming into this country all of course, for the benefit of the pottery workers. The East Liverpool strike was, in fact, one of the features of that year's gubernatorial campaign between William McKinley and James E. Campbell, and the latter successfully twitted his opponent upon the failure of the act that bore the name of McKinley to protect the laboring man against a reduction in wages while the employe pocketed both the normal profit of the business and the bonus granted by a tariff that prevented competition. As a result the tremendous Ohio Republican majority was only 20,000 that year.

Republican speakers and organs deliberately falsify the facts of history when they charge the panic of ten years ago up to the Democratic party. When they refer to those dark days they conveniently suppress any allusion to the frantic and ineffectual attempts of the Harrison administration to check the catastrophe which was in its incipency in 1889. It has taken them pretty nearly 25 years to admit that Samuel J. Tilden was honestly elected president and Hayes seated by fraud. Probably by 1920 they will sufficiently recognize the truth of history to admit that the charge that the last panic was produced by Democratic policies and a Democratic administration is an unblushing falsehood concocted only to serve the purpose of a waning cause.

BIG GAINS
FOR THE DEMOCRACY IN OHIO PLAINLY IN SIGHT.
Paralyzing Slump in the Republican Majority is Looked For by the Party Leaders.

Columbus O., Oct. 22.—The managers at Republican state headquarters in this city, are seriously alarmed over the national outlook. This statement is not based on a view of the situation from a partisan standpoint, but is a well-authenticated truth, which can be verified by any person who reaches the inner circle of information now surrounding Chairman Dick's sanction. The confidence of the Republican leaders in the general result has been greatly shaken during the past week and has given place to the gravest doubt regarding the success of their national ticket. This fact they admit in private, although a bold front is still maintained at the corner of High and Chestnut streets, where the political doctors are now holding forth night and day.

A paralyzing slump has been noted in the Republican campaign and what is more serious—a corresponding increase of vim, vigor and prospect of victory in the Democratic. At the beginning of the contest Chairman Dick and his associates realized the gravity of the situation in doubtful Eastern states like New York, Connecticut and New Jersey, and they admitted that Parker and Davis were practically certain to receive more votes in the electoral college than were cast for the Democratic ticket four years ago. Later on they began to realize that these Eastern states were certainly slipping away from Roosevelt, but consoled themselves with the belief that the Middle West would remain staunchly Republican and thereby insure the success of their ticket, if only by a narrow margin.

Now, however, all this is changed. While the situation in the East has continued to favor the Democracy, great inroads have been made in the Republican columns in Indiana and West Virginia, until the Republican managers here now regard these states as doubtful as they conceded New York to be a few weeks ago. They have observed, with consideration, William J. Bryan's triumphal tour of Indiana, while the equally startling progress of David B. Hill and Henry G. Davis' special trains through other territory has at last convinced them that "something is doing" of a most unexpected and disconcerting nature.

Nobody realizes better than Chairman Dick that the Republicans have had absolutely nothing to offset the great movements of the Democratic hosts, led by these champions of Democracy in this campaign. Their best performances on the stump have been the tours of Senator Fairbanks and Secretary of War Taft, and these orators have not even approximated the records made by the leaders of the Democratic campaign. Such crowds as have greeted Fairbanks and Taft have been gathered together by the Republican organizations in the various states, at campaign openings and similar formal meetings worked up with great care. There has been absolutely nothing spontaneous in their progress, while the Democratic leaders have, figuratively speaking, set the woods on fire in every quarter they have visited. It may be stated as a fact that the Republicans have not entered upon any independent system of campaigning and have met with no response from the voters of their party, while the Democrats on all the doubtful states are on their mettle and full of enthusiasm at the drop of the bat. This is the cause of apprehension now existing in high Republican circles here, and there is no doubt that it has its counterpart in New York and Washington.

In Ohio Republican fortunes are equally on the wane, as is quite natural in view of the conditions elsewhere. General Dick would now be well satisfied with a Republican plurality of 30,000 in Ohio and as a matter of fact does not expect more. The Democratic leaders, on the other hand, see an inclination toward Judge Parker, which, when it is conceded to have already reduced the Republican plurality in this state by from 60,000 to 80,000 votes, may go on until it wipes out that plurality entirely and gives the state to the Democratic ticket by a narrow margin. The large early registration in the cities of the state is regarded as strongly favorable to the Democracy, for it is here that Democratic gains will be recorded. Democratic disaffection in this state during the past two presidential campaigns has been almost wholly in the cities; and with the party united in the great centers of population, as it now is, and the rural districts holding their own as compared with four and eight years ago, it is no "idle dream" to expect that the Old Buckeye State may go Democratic this year. At any rate, there can be no question that Democratic prospects are daily improving in the state as well as the nation, and this fact is conceded by the state leaders of both parties.

The Best Whiskey Made in Kentucky.
EDGEWOOD BOTTLED IN BOND

When a distiller takes a drink, he gets it out of the original barrel and Uncle Sam thinks you should have the same privilege. He makes it possible for you to get it by having it bottled under his own supervision and puts a little Green Government Stamp over the cork to GUARANTEE that it is the same. He also tells you when it was made, where it was made, and when it was bottled. Isn't that the kind of whiskey you want to buy for yourself and family? Keep a bottle in the house for medicinal purposes. Have your dealer show you the little government stamp on the cork, and if he can't, write us and we'll show you how to get it.

FOOTBALL

CHAMPIONSHIP OF OHIO TO BE DECIDED TODAY.

When Ohio State Meets Case Eleven in Gridiron Struggle on "U" Field, Columbus.

Ohio State's football schedule could not have been arranged to have suited Newark enthusiasts better than does the present one. In fact, interest in the games played on "U" field, Columbus, are followed more closely than is the Denison schedule, for the reason that there has been very little good football at Granville this year. The arrangement of the Paptists' schedule is such that most of their best game, have been away from home, the result being that Newark enthusiasts have been going to Columbus. Large delegations went to Columbus to see the Denison game, again last Saturday Newark was well represented at the Michigan game, and today another crowd went over to see the Case-Ohio State game which is practically a struggle for the championship of the state.

Of course the great majority of Newark visitors at the game are "pulling" for O. S. U., but Wentworth's plucky eleven has a number of well wishers among the Newark crowd.

Strange as it may seem, the Case eleven, two times champions of Ohio, are on the short end of the betting and the prevailing odds are 5 to 3 on Ohio State.

Wentworth of Case, is making no claims but modestly says that his team is in the best possible condition and will do its best to return the championship to Cleveland. Sweetland of O. S. U., is also chary about making predictions, but his manner indicates that he expects to win the championship with his scarlet and gray warriors.

Christ Would Attend Football.

Dr. Goodspeed, of the Divinity Faculty of the University of Chicago, addressing a student mass meeting said last night: "The first thing that we hear about Christ in his public life is about his attending a festival. He always loved to be among men. He would attend football, but he certainly would not bet, as students do today."

Golden Rod Lodge is again called upon to mourn the loss of a true and devoted member, Brother Herman O. Stouffer, whose death occurred at the home of his father, C. C. The Murray Comedy company in "The Westerner" delighted another large audience last night. The play is a story of the days of "49," and was cleverly handled, and the company deserve much credit for the meritorious performance.

Miss Clara Hazel was quite at home in the part of "Pug," and won much praise by the conscientious work.

The supporting company were at their best, and the production was a number one in every particular. At today's matinee, "A Southern Romance" was presented, and tonight "The Street Singer" and the drawing for $10 in gold.

BUSTER BROWN NEXT FRIDAY.

"Buster Brown," a comedy with chorus ballet and handsome settings, will be the attraction at the Auditorium, October 28. The title is so widely known that almost everyone will recognize the fact that it is a play founded on the adventures of that funny little fellow with the innocent look and the infinite capacity for mischief that Richard F. Outcault has made known in the pages of the New York Herald. The enterprising manager, Mr. Melville B. Raymond, has acquired AUDITORIUM NEXT TUESDAY. Visions of the Orient, with its mysteries and magnificence, are vividly pictured in the second act of "A Little Outcast," where for the first time in any production a correct view of a typical Chinese restaurant is given. It is a replica of the world's famous one on Pell street in New York's Chinatown, and its beauty is accentuated by the brilliant evening costumes of a party of society leaders who are out "dinnering" after the theater. It is one of the most fascinating scenes ever presented. The gorgeous hangings with gold embroidered dragons and strange birds, the rich Oriental colorings and the half concealed alcoves for the use of the opium smokers, are accurate representations and furnish a superb setting for some of the good acting.

The scenes in "A Little Outcast" are founded on actual conditions. They are sensational, they are surprising.

Trials of Motherhood

325 Broad Street, Philadelphia, Pa., June 12, 1903.

I suffered for nine years with ovarian troubles making life a burden to myself as well as to my family. During that time I had two miscarriages and although we longed for a child to bless our home this seemed impossible. I had constant racking bearing-down pains in the pelvic organs and a pulling through my limbs with frequent headaches. I felt sick at my stomach and vomited frequently and no medicine helped me until I tried Wine of Cardui.

Then my general health improved, the pains gradually lessened and after 18 weeks I was well. I am now the happy mother of a boy eighteen months old and my husband joins me in sending heartfelt thanks to you for your splendid medicine.

Without, I would have been a childless, instead of a happy and well mother.

Mrs. Fredricka Nirdlinger

CHAIRMAN, ST. ANDREW'S ASSOCIATION.

WINE OF CARDUI

Wine of Cardui is the most successful menstrual regulator. By regulating menstruation, Wine of Cardui banishes inflammation from the entire female organism and the strengthened ligaments bring the organs back to their proper place. This is what Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Nirdlinger. It banished the racking pains and burning inflammation and brought her relief. She was restored to health and strength and gives Wine of Cardui the credit of making her able to become a happy mother. This medicine equips a woman for every duty of wifehood and motherhood. There are many suffering women who think that health can never be theirs because they cannot secure the services of a great specialist, but we want to say right here that while Mrs. Nirdlinger lives in Philadelphia, a great medical center, she depended on Wine of Cardui for a cure and she was cured. This same medicine is within your reach. Will you take it?

Painless, Natural Childbirth.

Baby's coming into the world should be preceded by a certain preparation on the part of every woman who expects to become a mother. She owes it as a duty to her unborn babe, and to herself; her duty to her unborn babe is to use every means within her power to aid his entrance into the world. Baby cannot help himself in this ordeal, therefore mother must. He has a hard enough time after his arrival, so let us make his coming easy. His health after life depends greatly upon the manner of his coming. Would you have your child a cripple, or would you have him a tower of strength? Strong men are but grown-up children; a famous surgeon in Vienna is devoting his life-work to the cure of little helpless cripples, deformed by birth; do not allow your child to become a cripple.

Mother's Friend

Is a liniment which will forestall any possibility of accident at birth; that is, it relaxes all the abdominal muscles and tissues, and permits of an easy access to the child. It eases the mother's pain, and so assists nature that when baby comes he starts out in life with a constitution well able to fight life's battles, and to bloom into strong pure manhood that is the comfort and delight of every true mother's heart.

ALTA COOPER BEGINS A SUIT FOR ALIMONY.

Wife Alleges Abandonment on Part of Her Husband—Realty Transfers. Court Notes.

Alta Cooper, by her attorneys, Fulton & Fulton, has filed a petition in the Common Pleas court wherein she asks that she be allowed alimony from her husband, Frank P. Cooper. The plaintiff says that she was married to the defendant at Homer, this county, on October 15, 1891, and that one child, Irsel Cooper, now aged about 10 years, was born to them.

For cause of action she says that her husband in September, 1902, abandoned her and the child and has refused ever since to contribute to their support. She also charges her husband with cruelty in striking her and threatening to shoot her. She says that her husband is the owner of property in Centerburg and asks for alimony for the support of herself and child.

The death of Herman C. Stouffer, one of the most popular young men of Newark, was announced briefly in yesterday's Advocate.

For some time he has been in ill health, but not until October 18 was he compelled to give up his work.

On Thursday, just one week before his death, meningitis developed, and on Sunday he was brought to the house of his father, where he lingered unconsciously until his death at 9:50 p. m., Thursday, June 12, 1901, he was married to Clara B. Hohenberger, of this city, and has since resided at 51 North Fourth street.

The deceased leaves a wife, son Ralph, father, mother, a brother, W. B. Stouffer of Raton, N. M., and two sisters, Mrs. C. Kimble and Mrs. E. B. Stewart, both of this city.

The funeral services will be held from the home of his father, C. C. Stouffer, 131 Elmwood avenue, Sunday at 2 p. m., and will be under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. of which the deceased was a member.

Indications Are That Several Hundred Dollars Will Be Raised—All to Be Used For Charity.

Today is "tag day" and the King's Daughters are making it a great success, although the weather is very disagreeable for such an enterprise.

Seventy young ladies went on duty at the most important street corners and other localities at 7:30 this morning, and worked actively until they were relieved at 11 o'clock a. m., tagging nearly everybody that passed, thereby receiving contributions of all sizes to be used for charity.

The morning detail turned in over $150 up to noon, and a number of the young ladies were still to be seen from the second detail of young ladies went on duty at 11 o'clock, and they were in turn relieved by another seventy at 2 p. m., who will work until 5 o'clock this evening, when the last detail goes on for the evening work.

The young ladies are working hard and are meeting generally with a pleasant reception.

It is thought that $100 will be realized from the work of the day.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY
Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
